As he stuck his tongue out Guruji went up to him and pulled his tongue so that it protruded out. Using His index finger He scribbled on the tongue with His finger.

Jalaja mami happened to enter the room at precisely that moment. She was bewildered watching. It looked as if Guruji was writing on the man's tongue something. After writing for about half a minute Guruji stepped away and said "Now you may go. Ask your son and his wife to come here".

Nobody knows what Guruji did to that tongue of the man except that to an onlooker, it appeared as though He scribbled some letters, maybe in Sanskrit. But what happened – this literal 'tongue - in - cheek' action by Guruji - was the turning point in their lives. The husband discovered that he had no more interest in smoking. He completely stopped smoking. He never again got the urge.

Was this an impulse which was momentary? Would it surface after a month or so? Would Meena's husband get the itch as the 'Guruji effect' wore off? To the utter surprise of the family the man never touched a cigarette thereafter!

The miracle made Meena have blind faith in Guruji. She became the champion for Guruji and made her son fix a time.

No doubt the young couple was also most eager now to meet Guruji. Needless to say, they had tried various medical solutions and undertaken religious exercises to see if they could be blessed with a child. They had finally given up hope. The Smoking-cessation episode gave them renewed hopes.

"In your life" Guruji told them when they came to see Him, "There is no possibility to conceive a child. Destiny has not given that provision".

"But do not worry. I will overtake your fate and ensure you are blessed with a child." The couple did not believe what they were hearing.

"Both of you repeat this mantra" Guruji chanted the mantra. He concluded saying "I bless you."

The couple left the house with renewed hopes.

After a few months Jalaja mami was the first to get the incredible news. The lady had conceived.

Guruji smiled when He got the news. "Yes, I do have the authority to modify the destiny of my devotees. But for that one needs 'line of judgement of the highest kind'. One has to be very balanced and cannot be swayed by any emotion. I will do it only if(Goddess) Kamakshi approves", He explained.

The couple was blessed with a child and today he is grown-up and works in a well-known bank.

Such an instance is not isolated. There are many cases when childless couples, years after being unsuccessful, have approached Guruji and have been blessed with a child.
